

The Privatization of Public Universities: Implications for the Research Mission

July 19-21, 2006

Participants in the 10th Merrill Center conference on the Research Mission of Public Universities

Keynote Speaker

John Wiley, Chancellor of the University of Wisconsin

The University of Kansas

Robert Hemenway, Chancellor

Richard Lariviere, Executive Vice Chancellor and Provost - Lawrence campus

Barbara Atkinson, Executive Vice Chancellor, KU Medical Center

Richard Barohn, Professor and Chair, Neurology Dept., KUMC

Jim Roberts, Vice Provost for Research and President, KU Center for Research

Joseph Steinmetz, Dean, College of Liberal Arts & Sciences

Jeff Aube, Professor, Medicinal Chemistry

Keith Yehle, Director of Government Relations

Iowa State University –Ames

John Brighton, Vice Provost for Research

University of Nebraska –Lincoln

Kimberly Espy , Associate Vice Chancellor for Research and Professor, Dept. of Psychology

Donald P. Weeks, Professor and Head, Biochemistry Dept.

University of Missouri –Columbia

Brian Foster, Provost

Michael F. Nichols, Director, Office of Technology Management and Industry Relations

Kansas State University

M. Duane Nellis, Provost and Professor

Ron Trewyn, Vice Provost/Dean

Christopher M. Sorensen, University Distinguished Professor, Dept. of Physics

Merrill Board – The University of Kansas

Mabel Rice, Director of the Merrill Center

Robert Barnhill, Vice Chancellor for Research & Technology Transfer, University of Texas System

Richard Schiefelbusch, Director Emeritus, Life Span Institute

Steven Warren, Director of the Schiefelbusch Institute for Life Span Studies

Other Participants

Jeremy Anderson, Office of the Kansas Governor

Reggie Robinson, President and CEO, Kansas Board of Regents

Jean Schodorf, Kansas State Senator